GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 20, 2024—29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking.”). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

— Father John Muir

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

The 2024 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is beginning in our parishes. If you have not yet received it, you will be getting an invitation from Archbishop Lucas to support the work of the Church through a personal commitment. The Annual Appeal supports the parishes, schools and ministries across the archdiocese. I hope you will join me in making a gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. Our financial goals for this year's Annual Appeal are listed below. As disciples of Jesus, we are invited to trust, to let go of fear and open our minds and hearts to God's saving work. What is holding you back from sharing your gifts?

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal helps to build One Church throughout the Archdiocese of Omaha. Your support of the annual appeal directly impacts parishes, schools and ministries throughout northeast Nebraska as they work to become missional communities. It also ensures that the Good News and mercy of Jesus Christ spread beyond the walls of our parishes and schools.

Thank you for prayerfully considering a gift!

*Fraternally yours in Christ,
Archbishop George Lucas*

Holy Hour for the United States of America and to Consecrate our 2024 Election to the Blessed Virgin Mary

St. Isidore Church
Sunday, Nov. 3 – 2:00 p.m.

"If My people, which are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land." (2nd Chronicles)

The best weapon we have for these times is prayer & fasting.

Concerning the Rosary, Our Lady herself said to Padre Pio:

"With this weapon you will win."

Dear St. Anthony parishioners,

The Fall Festival for our parish is Sunday, Oct. 27, from 11:00 a.m. until the conclusion of the live auction, which begins at 3:00 p.m. and usually ends no later than 4:00 p.m. I encourage everyone to stop by and enjoy the food, games, activities and fellowship. I want to make a push for donations to our Fall Festival Challenge, which is the most important part of the fundraiser. The monies collected provide much-needed financial support for the overall functioning of St. Anthony. Our goal this year is to raise $70,000. As of Oct. 14, we have collected $34,950.15. We are behind the hoped for goal, but there is still time to contribute. Parishioners have given anywhere from $10.00 to $5,000.00. Every contribution is important and I thank those who have contributed and encourage others to do so also. I am also very thankful for the Fall Festival Committee members and their work in putting this event together, along with all parishioners who have contributed various items for the Festival. Thank you all for your generosity and faithfulness to our parish family.
